

Board of Directors WILLINGNESS TO SERVE FORM

Nominations are now open for one (1) position

What are the responsibilities of the Board of Directors?

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors as defined by your Village's Bylaws can be reviewed by using the QR code. Please reference Article II and Article VIII.

The Board is responsible for providing direction for the maintenance, administration, financial well-being, and general betterment of the Association. Serving as a Board member is a valuable and rewarding experience, and the best opportunity to serve your Village of Diamond Bay HOA community.

Who is the Village of Diamond Bay's Management Company?

FirstService Residential is the management company for Shadow Creek Ranch and the Village Associations. The role of the management company is to conduct day-to-day business operations in compliance with federal, state, and local codes as well as your Village's governing documents. The management company also works closely with your Board of Directors by facilitating follow-through on their duties and implementing decisions.

Where and when are the Village of Diamond Bay Board of Directors meetings held?

The Village of Diamond Bay Board of Directors meetings are currently held via online video conference service (Zoom) once per month, January through September, with an annual member meeting in October. Board Workshops are scheduled in lieu of open Board meetings as deemed necessary. Candidates must be willing and able to participate consistently.

Who serves on the Board of Directors?

Directors are elected by Village of Diamond Bay homeowners (Members). To serve, you must be a Member listed on the deed for your property.

How long are Board of Director member terms?

Elected board members serve three-year terms. Terms are staggered to ensure continuity year-over-year.
